Explanation of Professional Designations:

Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

In order to become a licensed CPA in the United States, the candidate must sit for and pass the Uniform Certified Public Accountant Examination, which is set by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and administered by the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy and have two years of experience properly supervised by a licensed CPA. Eligibility to sit for the Uniform CPA Exam is determined by individual State Boards of Accountancy. Typically the requirement is a U.S. bachelor's degree which includes a minimum number of qualifying credit hours in accounting and business administration with an additional one year study. All CPA candidates must pass the Uniform CPA Examination to qualify for a CPA certificate and license (i.e., permit to practice) to practice public accounting. CPAs are required to take continuing education courses in order to renew their license. Requirements vary by state. The vast majority of states require 120 hours of CPE every 3 years with a minimum of 20 hours per calendar year. The requirement can be fulfilled through attending live seminars, webcast seminars, or through self-study (textbooks, videos, online courses, all of which require a test to receive credit).

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the "CFP® marks") are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP Board"). To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements: 1) complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing financial planning subject areas and attain a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university; 2) pass the CFP® Certification Examination; 3) have at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience; and 4) agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals. Individuals must complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the field. Individuals must also renew an agreement to be bound by the Standard of Professional Conduct.

Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP®)

The Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy must be engaged in advising individuals or charitable organizations in wealth and estate planning, financial planning, charitable planning, charitable giving, planned giving, nonprofit or foundation management or services, investment management of charitable assets or accounting. To attain the designation, individuals must complete three graduate-level courses and final exam for each course. Every two years, CAP® holders must complete 15 hours of continuing education.

Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

In order to become a licensed CPA in the United States, the candidate must sit for and pass the Uniform Certified Public Accountant Examination, which is set by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and administered by the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy and have two years of experience properly supervised by a licensed CPA.

Eligibility to sit for the Uniform CPA Exam is determined by individual State Boards of Accountancy. Typically, the requirement is a U.S. bachelor's degree which includes a minimum number of qualifying credit hours in accounting and business administration with an additional one year study. All CPA candidates must pass the Uniform CPA Examination to qualify for a CPA certificate and license (i.e., permit to practice) to practice public accounting.

CPAs are required to take continuing education courses in order to renew their license. Requirements vary by state. The vast majority of states require 120 hours of CPE every 3 years with a minimum of 20 hours per calendar year. The requirement can be fulfilled through attending live seminars, webcast seminars, or through self-study (textbooks, videos, online courses, all of which require a test to receive credit).
